From Nuremberg to The Hague and Beyond: Critical Reflections on the State of Criminal Justice Today

Moderator:

Dr. Viviane Dittrich, Deputy Director of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Introductory Remarks:

Dr. Guido Hildner, Director of Public International Law, Federal Foreign Office, Germany

Speakers:

Dr. Navi Pillay, former United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights; former Judge at the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and International Criminal Court; President of the Advisory Council of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Dr. Serge Brammertz, Chief Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, United Nations Mechanism for International Criminal Tribunals; Vice-President of the Advisory Council of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Mr. David Tolbert, President of the International Center for Transitional Justice; Member of the Advisory Council of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Mr. William Pace, Convenor of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court

The panel will critically reflect on current challenges and principal developments in the field. The work of the International Nuremberg Principles Academy will be highlighted, including recent and ongoing projects related to the application, development, and acceptance of international criminal law and human rights, including emerging norms, sexual violence and the role of refugees as potential witnesses in the prosecution of international crimes. The discussion will touch on how this work and the principal developments can and will advance the work of the International Criminal Court and States Parties and how cooperation can be strengthened.

After interventions from the podium, the floor will be opened for questions and comments.
A light lunch will be provided.
