

Federal Foreign Office

Side Event

International Nuremberg Principles Academy (INPA)

Hosted by Germany

Fifteenth Session of the Assembly of States Parties of the International Criminal Court

Wednesday, 23 November 2016, 1:30 – 3 pm

Room Europe 1-2, World Forum Convention Center, The Hague

Book Launch and Discussion

"Two Steps Forward, One Step Back: The Deterrent Effect of International Criminal Tribunals"

Moderator: Klaus Rackwitz, Director, International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Speakers:

Jennifer Schense, Director, House of Nuremberg and Prof. Linda Carter, University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law (Editors)

Prof. Mark Drumbl, Washington and Lee University

Dr. Guido Hildner, Deputy Director-General, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Germany

H. E. Dr. Bertram Schmitt, Judge at the ICC

Christian Mahr, Director of External Operations, ICC Registry

The panel discussion will examine the conclusions and recommendations of the book, with an eye towards how the ICC and States Parties can undertake concrete steps both to deter crimes and to measure the impact of their actions taken. The discussion will also touch on how the Academy will follow up on its work on deterrence in the next year.

After interventions from the podium, the floor will be opened for questions and comments.

A light lunch will be provided.