

Book Panel: Feminist Judgments: Reimagining the International Criminal Court

Program | Monday, 13 October 5:00 pm

Welcome Remarks

Prof. Dr. Eva Pils

Chair of Human Rights Law, Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU)
Board Member FAU Research Center for Human Rights Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU CHREN)

Prof. Dr. Christoph Safferling

Chair of Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, International Criminal Law and Public International Law, Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU)
Director, International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Book Launch

Speaker: Michelle Jarvis

Deputy Head, International, Impartial and Independent Mechanism - Syria (IIIM)

Book Editors discussion

Dr. Kcasey McLoughlin

Associate Professor, The University of Newcastle-Australia
"The Value of the Feminist Judgment Method for the ICC"

Prof. Dr. Louise Chappell

Scientia Professor, University of New South Wales Sydney
"The Limits of the Law and Alternative Views"

Select cases from the book

Dr. Suzanne Varrall

Research Fellow, University of Melbourne
"Command Responsibility and Sexual Violence: Central African Republic Situation"

Anushka Sehmi

"Meaningful Participation of Victims: Sudan Situation"

Closing Comments

Marie O'Leary

Acting Principal Counsel, Office of Public Counsel for the Defence, International Criminal Court (ICC)

Closing Remarks

Dr. Viviane Dittrich

Deputy Director, International Nuremberg Principles Academy

Q & A Session

Poetry Recording

Maxine Beneba Clarke

"The Hope of a Thousand Small Lights"

Refreshments
